

WHAT MAKES A GOOD LEADER?

TERRY FOX

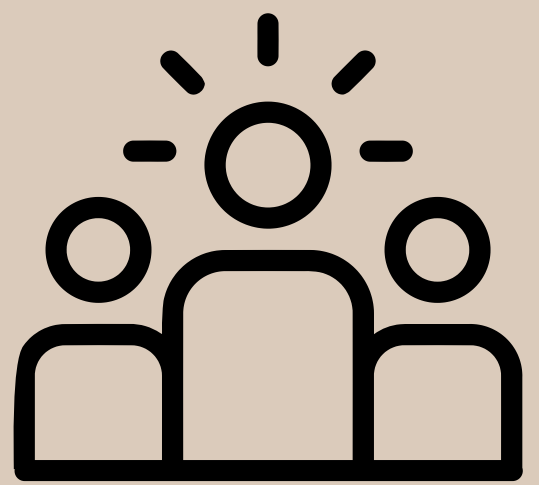

Preseverance

Terry set a goal, which sounded almost impossible, however he never gave up, inspiring millions of people who continue his legacy to this day

Leads by Example

Terry never asked anybody to run the Marathon of Hope with him, Instead he lead by example, which motivated people to help with his goal

Selflessness

Terry didn't run for himself, he ran so that people in the future won't have to suffer the same way he did

Courageous

Anyone can set a big goal like Terry did, however it takes an immense amount of courage to follow through with it and never give up, especially in his condition

Humble

Terry, although labeled as a hero in Canada, remained extremely humble. He was always kind to others and spent time with the people he had inspired, such as kids who were suffering from cancer
